For more than 350 years, Notre-Dame-de-Bon-Secours Chapel, a jewel of history and heritage, has found a special place in the hearts and memories of generations of visitors and pilgrims. To cross its threshold is to immediately sense its atmosphere of peace and wellness, and feel a palpable link to the Montréal of years past.

In the coming hour, we invite you to visit Notre-Dame-de-Bon-Secours Chapel. It will be our pleasure to help you to discover this historic chapel whose influence is closely tied to the charism of Marguerite Bourgeoys. You will find a place containing many attractions. In addition to the richness of its décor, you will be enchanted by the furnishings, paintings, votive offerings in the form of boats recalling its function as a place of pilgrimage, the “miraculous” statue and, of course, the museum.

This flyer shows the recommended routes and points of interest. The numbers on the maps indicate the starting point for each of the 19 downloadable audio stops of the virtual tour. Throughout the visit, the narrator will guide you and explain which audio stops to select.

To begin the visit, go to the intersection of Rue de la Commune East and Rue Bonsecours. Stand beside the pillar of the wharf in the Old Port, and select Stop No. 2.
